

please do not allow any more telemarketers to call us for any longer periods of time than currently specified. Evening can become a telephone marathon, and the relief the no-call list has provided has been wonderful.